7. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given at the end:

10

A man is known by the company he keeps. A good student should avoid the company of those who keep playing all the time. Many students miss their classes and seldom do their homework because some other fellow students do the same. There are hardworking students also who work while others play. They know when to study and when to play. They play when it is time to play. They enjoy the games of their choice because they know that playing games is essential for health. A sick student is not so quick in learning his lesson as a healthy one.

Questions: (i) What kind of company should a good student keep?

(ii) Why do some students miss their classes?

(iii) Why do good students enjoy good health?

(iv) Why are games necessary for students?

(v) Where does the success of a student lie?
